

NOTICE

Please contact the U.S. Post Office immediately upon closing the purchase of your new home. With new construction, the U.S. Post Office will not recognize the new home construction until you notify them that it is now an active address.

If your subdivision requires a mail key, please call your specific Post Office inquiring as to where you pick up your mail box key. If no key is required, please contact the Post Office notifying them that the mail delivery can begin.

Unless you inform them of your new address, your mail may end up being marking "return to sender".

Please see the attached list for your subdivision Post Office address and telephone numbers. These addresses and telephone numbers are subject to change
